

Once upon a time, a man and his wife had the good fortune to have a goose which laid a golden egg every day. Lucky though they were, they soon began to think they were not getting rich fast enough.

They imagined that if the bird is able to lay golden eggs, its insides must be made of gold.

And they thought that if they could get all that precious metal at once, they would get mighty rich very soon. So the man and his wife decided to kill the bird.

However, upon cutting the goose open, they were shocked to find that its innards were like that of any other goose!

TAKEAWAY FROM THE STORY

TAKEAWAY FOR CLASS 1,2,3

Greediness can lead to losing what we already have. Be patient and appreciate what you have.

TAKEAWAY FOR CLASS 4,5,6

If we are too impatient and want everything all at once, we may end up with nothing. Patience and gratitude are important.

TAKEAWAY FOR CLASS 7,8,9

Greed and impatience can cloud judgment and lead to reckless decisions. It's wise to appreciate consistent rewards over a one-time gain that risks losing everything.

3 FUN FACTS:

- 1. This story is another famous Aesop's fable and teaches about the dangers of greed.
- 2. Real geese don't lay golden eggs, but they are known for being loyal and protective!
- 3. This tale is so popular that "the Goose that Laid the Golden Egg" has become a phrase used to warn against greed.

QUIZ TIME!

QUIZ FOR CLASS 1,2,3

- 1. What did the goose lay every day?
- 2. Why did the man and his wife decide to kill the goose?
- 3. What did they find inside the goose?

QUIZ FOR CLASS 4,5,6

- What made the man and his wife want to cut open the goose?
- 2. How did greed lead to their loss in the story?
- 3. What lesson does the story teach us about being content?

QUIZ FOR CLASS 7,8,9

- 1. Discuss how greed affected the man and his wife's decisions.
- 2. Do you think the couple would have been happier if they kept the goose alive? Explain.
- 3. Can you think of a time when wanting too much of something led to disappointment?

